AMERICA WAKE UP, No. 111

INTERVIEW WITH GEORGE S. SCHUYLER

ANNOUNCER: AMERICA WAKE UP, in cooperation with the Daughters of the American Revolution, State of Illinois, presents Phyllis Schlafly:

PHYLLIS SCHLAFLY:

ANNOUNCER: Sixty-two years ago, in Cincinnati, Ohio, the Daughters of the American Revolution founded the first Junior American Citizens club among children of foreign birth and parentage for the purpose of teaching them "some knowledge of the underlying principles of our Government, of American sentiment and of all that will go towards making them good citizens." Through the years, this project has been greatly widened in scope until today, the DAR sponsors JAC clubs all over America. These clubs welcome all children and young people regardless of race or creed from kindergarten through senior high school. DAR members and teachers are responsible for the leadership of these clubs, and the National Society, DAR provides all the necessary literature and supplies. The JAC program has been endorsed by school superintendents, principals, teachers, settlement house and community center directors all over the United States, who have found it an excellent way to teach history, civics, parliamentary law, and an appreciation of our American heritage. The national Junior American Citizens program is one of the many activities sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution for the enrichment of our children's education.

Listen in again next week at this same time for another in the series of programs called AMERICA WAKE UP.
