FOP.li[1]S PosrrION ON EASTERN EUROPE

Great All American football star President Ford is staggering in his effort to carry both Henry Kissinger, and Kissinger's top assistant Helmut Sonnenfeldt, up to election day.

1•;hen Henry Kissinger agreed in Paris to let the North Vietnamese troops remain in South Vietnam, and even to bring in new divisions and weapons, he lost Southeast Asia and wiped out the long effort by Presidents Kennedy, Johnson .Nixon to save freedom in Vietnam, Loos and Cambodia.

Last May Kissinger persuaded President Ford to sign the Helsinki Agreement with dictator Brezhnev. It involved the Sonnenfeldt doctrine, first stated off the recowd to American diplonats in Europe by Helmut Sonnenfeldt in December 1975, namely, that all the Eastern European countries must accept their status as satellites of the soviet Union, or else detente will fail and the threat of nuclear war might increase.

'·.'hen President Ford was asked about Eastern Europe in his foreign policy debate with Jimmy Carter, Ford first answered with what Sonnenfelclt and Kissinger apparently had told him, that the Sov, iet Union does not really control Eastern Europe.

The next day, President Ford tried a different answer: "The Poles do not believe that they are going to be forever domina•ed, if they are, by the Soviet Union.[11]
